

Dear Friends & Family,

We're counting down! On Tuesday, September 24th in New York City, leaders at the forefront of financial technology and services will join us at the Forward Africa Leaders Symposium. The symposium, held alongside the 79th United Nations General Assembly, will focus on two themes that we consider particularly relevant in our world today:

- Windows of Opportunity: Innovating for shared prosperity through remittances and global connections
- Cross-sector Collaborations: Investing in critical digital public infrastructure and strategic partnerships to advance a unified digital economy

Our UNGA events have a legacy of impactful dialogue; consistently bringing together stakeholders from public, private, government, and third-sector organisations. This year's symposium promises to be just as impactful, with a distinguished group of speakers leading the way.

Great news! Due to overwhelming interest, we've secured additional space for the symposium. However, spots are still limited. We encourage you to register quickly if you'd like to be part of this exciting event. Registrations close by 11:59pm EST on Saturday, September 21st. In the meantime, we'll keep you updated on any newly available spots.
